

Mimi Simon

Senior Account Manager

With Taylor Johnson since: 2017

People around the office come to me for:
Advice on all things Chicago.

People around the office avoid me for:
Talk about my quick commute to the office – 7 minutes!

Three words that describe me are:
Approachable, Fun, Reasonable

Proudest personal moment:
When my oldest daughter graduated from college.

When I was growing up I thought I'd be a:
An attorney

I never thought I'd be:
A mother of four – though wouldn't change it for the world.

The best professional advice I received was:
Leave things better today than they were yesterday.

Favorite Chicago building:

The Chicago Cultural Center. It is a true Chicago icon and beautiful inside and out.

Favorite Halloween costume:

It was fun to embrace my dark side as Cruella d'ville.

Last good book I read:

All the Light We Cannot See by Anthony Doerr

On my playlist:

My top picks include Bruce Springsteen, Van Morrison, Adele, Pink, Florence and the Machine, and of course, my daughter Genna Simon's original music (which – shameless plug – you can find on Bandcamp).

My favorite app:

Redfin – love seeing new houses for sale near me.

Favorite pastime:

Annual Door County trip with my family.

What I like most about TJ:

Collaborative work environment with smart, experienced communications professionals.

The worst job I ever had was:

Scooping ice cream at Baskin Robbins, though I still boast about the “scoop muscle” in my forearm!

My guilty pleasure is:

British murder mysteries on Netflix.
