

Nancy Swabb

Events Director

With Taylor Johnson since: 2014

Three words that describe me are: curious, collaborative and focused.

Proudest TJ moment: after coordinating a client event for 1,000 guests, being hired to coordinate all their events year-round.

When I was growing up I thought I'd be a: psychologist or a writer.

I never thought I'd be: interviewed by the press worldwide – Reuters, CNN, Chicago Tribune, Washington Post, People.com and more – in early 2017 when my family volunteered to host a baby girl from West Africa; she was here in the states for complex surgery at Advocate Children's Hospital. Google "Baby Dominique Ivory Coast".

Favorite Chicago building: The Art Institute
Beautiful art, of course, and it's where my husband and I met on a blind date.

Favorite Halloween costume: Winnie the Pooh in middle school

What I like most about TJ: whip smart, high energy colleagues and clients.

Most people don't know that I: interviewed Ralph Nader at a big press association event when I was in high school

My guilty pleasure is: People Magazine. I initially bought a subscription to support my daughter's Brownie Troop.
