

Cathleen Flynn

Administrative Office Assistant

With Taylor Johnson since: 2018

People around the office come to me for: A little bit of everything!

People around the office avoid me for: Short stories. I can be a bit long-winded when detailing my weekend adventures.

Three words that describe me are: empathetic, sentimental, and sarcastic.

Proudest personal moment: The time my nine-year-old son gave me a hug in front of his friends. He was buttering me up for a favor - but still, it counts.

When I was growing up I thought I'd be a: Teacher

I never thought I'd be: in Transportation for nearly a decade.

The best professional advice I received was: Semantics are important.

Favorite Chicago building: The Museum of Science and Industry.

Favorite Halloween costume: Peter Pan and Tinkerbell duo with my husband. I was Pan.

Last good book I read: Small Great Things by Jodi Picoult.

On my playlist: I love all genres of music, but Country is my favorite -- Yeehaw!

My favorite app: Google Maps. My sense of direction is always a bit off.

Favorite pastime: Friday Night Family Nights. Watching movies and playing board games is the best way to end the week!

What I like most about TJ: The sense of family -- both professionally and personally.

The worst job I ever had was: I was a pizza delivery driver in college. The biggest test of strength was not eating the pizza on the way to the delivery. I learned a lot about my self-control that semester.

Most people don't know that I: I love to DIY. I've built tables, bookshelves and repurposed furniture.

My guilty pleasure is: Masterpiece on PBS. Specifically, Downton Abbey.
