

Sarah Lyons

Senior Account Manager

With Taylor Johnson since: 2006.

The worst job I ever had was: working in the concessions stand at the local pool. More specifically, cleaning the nacho cheese dispenser at the end of each day.

People around the office come to me for: proofreading and answers to tricky grammatical questions.

Three words that describe me are: cheerful, sensible, caffeinated.

When I was growing up I thought I'd be a: semi-truck driver. Seriously! My father was a mechanical engineer for Cummins and apparently his work made a big impression on me.

Favorite Chicago building: I'll choose a landmark instead: the ice skating rink at Millennium Park, where my husband proposed.

Favorite Halloween costume: The Jolly Green Giant - I was a vision in green felt.

My favorite app: Words With Friends. Runner up: Backyard Scats and Tracks – especially helpful in determining if there's a skunk living under your deck.

Favorite pastime: Being crafty and creative at home – knitting, cooking, gardening, etc.

What I like most about TJ: working with such smart people -- colleagues and clients alike.
