

Yvette Pistorio

Social Media Senior Account
Manager

With Taylor Johnson since: January 2018

People around the office come to me for: All things social media.

People around the office avoid me for: I'm not in the office so they can't avoid me!! But if I was in the office, they probably wouldn't know I'm there because I'm really quiet.

Three words that describe me are: Honest, attentive, and motivated.

Proudest TJ moment: Joining the TJ team!

When I was growing up I thought I'd be a: My child-self thought I'd be a lawyer or doctor. My college-self thought I'd be Andie Andersen from How to Lose a Guy in 10 Days.

I never thought I'd be: I never thought I'd end up in digital marketing and social media.

The best professional advice I received was: Don't just ask a question. Do your research and try to find the answer for yourself.

Favorite Chicago building: Chicago Board of Trade

Favorite Halloween costume: My husband and I were Lucy and Charlie Brown from Peanuts.

Last good book I read: It's a bit old, but I just re-read Bossypants by Tina Fey and it's one of my favorites.

On my playlist: I have a 2-year-old, so there is a lot of Sesame Street and Disney music on my playlist. Think Elmo, Frozen, The Little Mermaid, Doc McStuffins, Moana, etc.

My favorite app: Instagram and Spider Solitaire

Favorite pastime: Reading and spending time with family

What I like most about TJ: The people. TJ has a great, friendly team and welcomed me with open arms.

The worst job I ever had was: I worked at a pizza restaurant when I was 16. I smelled terrible every time I left!

Most people don't know that I: Was born in an ambulance and have an irrational fear of fish.

My guilty pleasure is: Baked goods
