

Gretchen Muller

Account Director

With Taylor Johnson since: 2016

The best professional advice I received was: to learn everything you can about a company's office culture and leadership before accepting a job.

Three words that describe me are: thoughtful, collaborative, fun

When I was growing up I thought I'd be: a diplomat. I thought I might join the Foreign Service.

I never thought I'd be: familiar with the Wilderness Resort waterpark in the Wisconsin Dells.

Favorite Chicago building: The Inland Steel Building. 333 W. Wacker. The modern wing of the Art Institute. The addition to Fourth Presbyterian Church. The Carbon & Carbide

Building. 35 E. Wacker. Those are just a few of my favorites.

Favorite Halloween costume: Mia Wallace

Last good book I read: Commonwealth by Ann Patchett

On my Ipod: The Hamilton soundtrack

My favorite app: Shazam

Favorite pastime: Talking and laughing around a table with family and good friends.

What I like most about TJ: The people.

The worst job I ever had was: working food service at the local swim club's concession stand. UGH.

Most people don't know that I: love to play Just Dance.

My guilty pleasure is: Pop music and rom-coms; listening to musical soundtracks, and I'm not just talking Hamilton; glossy fashion magazines; Ruffles with French onion dip; fountain Coke.
