

Patty Cronin

Account Director

With Taylor Johnson since: 2018.

People around the office come to me for:
Editing and proofreading.

Three words that describe me are: Curious, interested, kind.

When I was growing up I thought I'd be a: An architect, an artist, a professor, a writer.

Favorite Chicago building: I have a special place in my heart for the Hancock Building.
Beyond that, there are so many – the Monadnock, the Inland Steel Building, the old
IBM Building, the Chicago Club, the Saddle &
Cycle Club, Medinah Temple and Tree Studios, Carl Street Studios – we are so lucky in Chicago to have such a rich building history.

Last good book I read: Work Smarter Not Harder, Nomadland, Still Here

Favorite pastime: I love to travel – Big Sur,
Italy, and New York are favorites.

What I like most about TJ: TJ has a great reputation for integrity and high-quality work.
They serve their clients very well.

The worst job I ever had was: They all taught me something. But one I wouldn't want to go back to was running a game at Dispensa's Kiddie Kingdom – hot summer sun, asphalt, hot uniform. No.

Most people don't know that I: Interviewed with Emily's mother 20 years ago! That's one that got away, but I'm making up for it now.

My guilty pleasure is: HGTV marathons!
